THE STORY :

In 1942 North Africa, Canadian intelligence officer Max Vatan (Brad Pitt) meets French Resistance fighter Marianne Beausejour (Marion Cotillard) on a secret mission behind enemy lines. The couple reunites in London and get married, eventually having a child together. Max Vatan is presented with the possibility that his wife is a sleeper spy working for the Germans, then he starts investigating...

OUR REVIEW :

Will 'Allied' be remembered as a war classic ? Like the second world war itself, the second world war movie is an ocean of stories. Now we are back to repeating ourselves. At least, in 'ALLIED', we can notice the presence of French actors playing brilliantly their part. Marion Cotillard was as French as usual. It was astonishing to discover Brad Pitt speaking French during several scenes. Nevertheless, the film was missing actions and suspense when speaking of a War film....
