This dark day, resulted in scenes of guerrillas, worthy of civil war, and has resulted in multiple incidents and violence in France, especially in Paris. In the capital, clashes between vandals and police, have made a hundred wounded, including 23 among the police. The Yellow Vests were blocked at the Place de l'Etoile (end of the Avenue des Champs Elysee) by the forces of the Order and inciting them remained facing the Round Point of the Arc de Triomphe. At around 8:00 am, chartering with the police started already very early, with projectile jets on one side (Vandal Yellow Vests) and the big tear-guns (Police officers, CRS). The cars that were burned were targeted at luxury brands (Porsche, Mercedes ...).

Bank distributors, cash machines, and shops were ransacked and looted. THE YELLOW VESTS MOVEMENT PROMISE TO MARCH AGAIN NEXT SATURDAY UNLESS THEY GET WHAT THEY WANT BEFORE HAND-----

The Yellow Vests are threatening to make another demonstration march next Saturday, unless they have obtained their demands, which they say are neither heard nor understood nor endorsed by the government and the President of the Republic ". There is a distinction between the "Pacifist Yellow Vests" protesting in the street, quietly and quietly and friendly, attracting even the sympathy of drivers and traders blocks in the roadblocks. And then there is another category of "Yellow Vandals Vests" who behave as thugs, come loot, break, light fires, burn cars and even beats. This sow panic and degenerative violence, as was the case at the Arc de Triomphe and in the garden Tuileries where the gate of this public garden was disassembled and wicked because of the serious wounds of one of their It is very easy to put on a yellow vest at the last minute and pretend to be a pacifist demonstrator and then fare tags, and fare of ultra violence and attack the police forces and even some journalists of TV. The more this movement does not spontaneously on November 17, drag and lasts, the more the anger grows and more the movement harden by the vandals' sackings and the French people seems to support the movement to 81% according to Odoxa polling institute. The President of the Republic returns to France after the G20, will manage this crisis, on his return and take ad hoc measures to avoid the continuation of this weekly

STRATEGY OF POLICE SERVICES NOT SUITABLE FOR VIOLENCE OF BREACHERS-----

The Prefect of Police Michel Delpuech, explained at the Press conference that : This is an unprecedented situation, with "degrees of violence never so serious" and "intensity not seen for decades, said the Prefect of Paris, Michel Delpuech. The mayor of Paris 15, Philippe Goujon, explains on France TV that: "Out of 48 forces mobilized, only seven were mobile for the Place de l'Etoile with CRS companies. The principle of keeping the police in the French to keep protesters at a distance, at the Francise, it would have needed the police in contact with the vandals. Those who were challenged are those who "run the least quickly" while the most seasoned sit go quickly and left. The police force does not have enough means to keep the crowd away, (Flashballs ...), explains that the vandals already known to the police could have been apprehended quickly and judge immediately. And there was strength to protect National Assembly and Senate, and mayor of Paris, could have been used after military, as the military and do the guard. If the police are not able to put in place a correct strategy, we can not continue with events that will increase from Saturday to Saturday. "Explained Philippe Goujon Mayor of Paris 15th.
