HEADS OF STATES OF 3 NATIONS CLARIFY THEIR POSITION IN FIGHTING ISIL IN SYRIA

AT UN 70 TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY PART II

Paris, Washington DC, New York, 04.10.2015, 03:33 Time

USPA NEWS - The heads of state expressed their positions in consistency with their own strategy to enter the war against terrorism and ensure political and military transition in Syria. These are Presidents Obama, Poutine and Hollande other leaders at the rostrum of the UN 70th General Assembly in New York.

THIS IS THE SECOND EPISODE OF INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATIONS TO STABILISE SYRIA AND FIGHT AGAINST ISIL. We have chosen to publish this serial of negotiation live, regarding the hot topic of negotiation by the nations involved to stabilise Syria, and in parallel fighting against ISIL, in Syria as well. Here is the essential of the PART II. Each article is reminding the precedent article quoting the sequence of the episode related to the same topic.

PRESIDENT OBAMA READY TO WORK WITH RUSSIA AND IRAN BUT REFUSES TO NEGOTIATE WITH AL ASSAD BACHAR-----

The US president gave a speech focused on the power of diplomacy, citing the successful examples of Iran and Cuba, led by the US diplomacy recently. Yet he set the limits upon the possibility of siding with Bashar Al Assad. "After so much bloodshed and poured blood, there can be a return to the status quo before the war," he said. In the same line of cooperation with former enemy countries, President Obama clearly establishes the possibility to work with Russia and with Iran to find a solution and reach a peace in this region, by fighting against ISIL.

VLADIMIR POUTINE WANTS TO ENLARGE AN INTERNATIONAL COALITION TO FIGHT ISIL SYRIA AND IRAQ

Russian President defends, Bashar al-Assad and wishes to incorporate him into the international coalition proposal in the fight against ISIL in Syria and believes that the Syrian President is must in the "broad anti terrorist coalition". He adds that he wants this enlarged coalition should include Arab countries, like Saudi Arabia and Iran. This coalition would be "similar to the one against Hitler" during the Second World War and the "Arab countries will play a key role," he said. He continues: "We believe this is a huge mistake to refuse to cooperate with the Syrian government and its armed forces, who are courageous standing up to terrorism," Poutine said at the rostrum of the UN 70th General Assembly.

THE PRESIDENT HOLLANDE REFUSES TO INTEGRATE BASHAR AL ASSAD IN TRANSITION IN SYRIA-----

The position of Vladimir Putin is not at all that of the French president, who believes that "we must do everything so that a political transition can be found in Syria." Francois Hollande flatly refuses even to include Bashar al-Assad in the transition process and maintain its position in his address to the UN General Assembly: "One can not work together victims and both executioner. Assad is causing the problem: He can not be part of the solution" He also explained that he was not alone in defending this idea." Barack Obama refuses, other leaders do not. (...) the Russians must take the consequences."
