FRANCOIS PINAULT THE FRENCH TYCOON GOOD AMBASSADOR OF ART AND CULTURE-----------

Paris is convinced that this ambitious project can take shape on our territory and thus strengthen the cultural offer alongside our major institutions. In 2005, François Pinault, 79, considered one of the greatest collectors of modern and contemporary art (3500 works), had wanted to build a museum on the former site of the Renault factories lle Seguin (west from Paris). Due to administrative delays, he finally abandoned the project and decided to install its foundation in Venice, the Palazzo Grassi.
