Writer/Director/Actor Sylvia Batey Alcalá is the creative force behind the indie dark comedy feature, FAME DOGS, about the deadly cost of stardom. The film has been awarded 'Best Comedy Feature' at the 2016 Independent Filmmakers Showcase (IFS) Film Festival and makes its World Premiere on May 25th at the festival in Los Angeles.

FAME DOGS follows Tony-winning actress Polly White (Alcalá) floundering in her pursuit of silver screen stardom. After being implicated in the death of a Hollywood starlet (Jillian Clare, Days of Our Lives), Polly gains the media attention she's been hoping for. As her celebrity spirals out of control, she must decide how far she's willing to go to stay in the limelight. Is tabloid glory worth the deadly price ?

Sylvia Batey Alcalá has been building a solid reputation as a filmmaker in Los Angeles. Her writing has advanced in the Austin Film Festival Screenwriting Competition, Screencraft TV Writing Fellowship, and the Bahamas Int'l Film Festival. A classically-trained actress, Sylvia Batey Alcalá has appeared primarily on stage and in independent films, including the upcoming drama feature Russian Doll.
